Exhibition of Indian Revolutionaries

“OLAKH DESHBHAKTANCHI: SHALA TETHE KRANTIMANDIR”

MONDAY, July 10, 2023

The Objective of Exhibition:

Revolutionary posters serve to educate, inspire, and raise awareness about the ideologies, struggles, and accomplishments of various revolutionary movements in India.

On July 10, 2023, an exhibition honoring Indian revolutionaries took place at Venkatesh Mahajan Senior College, Dharashiv. The event, organized by Chandrakant Shahasane in collaboration with the History department, aimed to illuminate the contributions and sacrifices of Indian freedom fighters in the struggle for independence.

As part of the Silver Jubilee celebrations of Venkatesh Mahajan Mahavidyalaya, the History Department organized an exhibition featuring 2000 photographs of Indian revolutionaries along with their information. These materials were collected by Mr. Chandrakant Shahasane of the Karnala Charitable Trust in Pune. The exhibition was inaugurated by the college principal, Dr. Prashant Chaudhary. Also present were Principal Dr. Manish Deshpande, representatives from Arya Chanakya Vidyalaya, Professor Dr. Jayashree Kulkarni (Head of the History Department), Mr. Chandrakant Shahasane, as well as students and staff.

Professor Dr. Jayashree Kulkarni elucidated the rationale behind the exhibition's organization, followed by Mr. Shahasane providing additional information. Dr. Manish Deshpande concluded the program with a vote of thanks, and it concluded with the collective singing of Pasaydan.

A total of 166 students and 37 teaching and non-teaching staff from Arya Chanakya Vidyalaya and Junior College, Dharashiv, as well as Venkatesh Mahajan Vocational College and Senior College, Dharashiv, benefited from this informative exhibition between 11:00 am to 5:00 pm.

Outcome of the Objective:

The students got inspiration from this exhibition for patriotism as well as organized work for country and realized the struggle of our patriotic revolutionaries and various revolutionary movement of India.
